THE VICE PRESIDENT AND MRS. MARSHALL returned to Washington late last evening after spending the day in Baltimore and dining with Senator and Mrs. Joseph Irwin France. Mr. Marshall made an address in Baltimore.

The Japanese Ambassador and Viscount Ishii, who spent several days in Miami, at the Royal Palm Hotel, have started for Havana, Cuba.

Daniels Back in Town. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels returned to town this morning after spending the week end in New York.

The Norwegian Minister and Mme. Bryn entertained at dinner Saturday evening, having in their company Senator and Mrs. Saulsbury, the Netherlands Minister and Mme. Crémier, Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Breckinridge Long, Admiral and Mrs. W. W. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Mrs. Thomas P. Bayard, Dr. James Howard Gore, and Mr. and Mrs. Stray.

The Serbian Minister and Mme. Slavko Grouitch, who have gone to New York for a short stay, are stopping at the Plaza.

Mrs. Edward T. Brown, of Atlanta, arrived Saturday evening to be with Colonel Brown, who is ill with influenza, and was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marjorie Brown, and her son, Capt. Henry W. Brown, U. S. A. Captain Brown, who has been in France for the past eight or ten months, was invalided home and arrived in this country a short time ago. Colonel and Mrs. Brown's older son, Major Edward M. Brown, U. S. A., is now with the army of occupation. They are staying at the Powhatan.

Congressman and Mrs. Charles B. Ward will entertain at dinner tonight. Mrs. I. B. Clifford, of Newark, N. J., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ward.

Miss Mary Duncan Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Gibson, will entertain at dinner tonight for Miss Margaret Devereux, her fiancée, Capt. Richard Hall-Jeschke, U. S. M. C., and the members of the party which will attend them at their marriage on Wednesday.

Belmonts Give Luncheon. Capt. and Mrs. Perry Belmont entertained at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Lieut. Charles Fellows-Gordon, R. N., and his bride, who was formerly Miss Sara Price Collier.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Fellows-Gordon have just returned to Washington, after a week's visit in New York. They had expected to sail for England late in January, but the date of their departure has been postponed, as H. M. S. Warrior, to which Lieutenant Fellows-Gordon is attached, is in dry dock during the run of a submarine net on the way from Washington to New York.

Mrs. George Barnett and her daughter, Miss Lella Gordon, entertained at week-end house party at Wakefield Manor, their country place in Virginia.

Brig. Gen. Charles Lee, head of the British aviation mission, will introduce Lieut. Col. William A. Bishop, F. C. I., who will lecture tomorrow afternoon at the National Theater for the benefit of the Working Boys' Home. The lecture will be attended by a brilliant audience, and members of the British embassy staff and of the various British missions will be among those in the boxes.

After dinner a balalaika orchestra played.

Major George Oakley Totten Jr., as just returned to town, after a year's service at Camp Lee and Camp Traylor, as the rides are arranged especially for the first-mentioned. The drill will begin at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening and will be led by Col. Walter S. Sturgill, field artillery, U. S. A., recently returned from France. After the ride Miss Anne Stillings will give some exhibition dances and afterward there will be general dancing.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan American Union, and Dr. Henri M. Aml, of the British embassy, were the honor guests at a reception given yesterday afternoon by the patrons of the Beaux Arts Salon, 1413 H street, for the French Club, Rudolph de Zapp being the host. Mr. Barrett and Dr. Aml made brief addresses relating to the formation of a league of nations.

Mrs. Grace L. Johnson presided at the tea table and was assisted by Miss Winifred C. Greney, Miss Ruth Page Roberts, Miss Norris King Scott, Miss Maude E. Fowler, Miss Florence Du Bois, Miss Mabelle V. Austin, and Miss Patricia Berkeley. Mme. Grouitch, the wife of Dr. Slavko Grouitch, the minister of the Serbs, Slovenes, and Croats, will be the guest of honor at next Sunday's reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herschman, of 2733 P street, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lena Herschman, to Joseph Yamin, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hargreaves will leave Washington about the first of February for their home in Detroit. Mr. Hargreaves, who has been secretary of the highway and transportation committee of the Council of National Defense during the war, has completed his work here, and will take up his business interests in his home city.

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh will speak on Friday afternoon of this week before the League of American Pen-Women on the wonderful work accomplished in the reconstructing of garments for Belgian and French refugees from the discarded clothing, gloves, and stockings of the more fortunate people.

Come Back Ball Merry. The Come Back ball held Saturday evening was a great success. Among the many interesting attractions were the Scotch dance, Morris dance and the "Irish Lilt," done by Miss Margaret Goss, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Burlingame, Miss Marguerite Johnson, and Miss Jennie McLane.

Girls of the Golden Heart Club, of Washington, augmented by a group from the Church of the Covenant, were present. Mrs. George W. Knowlton, who has been teaching many of the new dances this season, especially for the entertainment of the wounded soldiers at Walter Reed Hospital, gave exhibition dances. Her solo dances were greatly praised, and in Oriental dance, with specially arranged music, met with great enthusiasm.

Among the patronesses were Mrs. Newton D. Baker, Col. and Mrs. Schriener, Colonel and Mrs. Regan, Col. and Mrs. William R. Bettison, Col. and Mrs. Edward R. Shinkle, Colonel and Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Rae, Mrs. Dowell, Miss Lower, Mrs. Mayer, and Mrs. Marie Downey Werner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Penfield received informally yesterday afternoon. They will leave Washington in about a month for France.

Mrs. Philip Clancy, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., will arrive in Washington today to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiller. She will remain over for the Southern ball, on February 3, and for the valentine ball and unique entertainment for the Penwomen's League, on February 11. Mrs. Clancy is the first woman to run for office in her part of the State. She made a vigorous campaign last fall, though unsuccessful, for the State Legislature.
